Program Offerings

There comes a time when a personal touch is key -- that time is never more evident than after a lay-off. No matter how tech-savvy the individual, someone going through a career transition thirsts for an office to go to, an objective sounding board, and a trusted consultant to help map out the next steps.

Research shows the criticality of human outreach during these difficult periods. Although it may sound trite, it rings true, we offer high tech solutions while delivering high touch experiences, at a time when people need it most.

The Difference: Trusted Professionals Offering Customized Service

"I had not looked for a job since I graduated from college and that was over 25 years ago. Not only did I not have a resume -- I had no clue how the Internet had changed the job search. Eileen, my coach, listened to me, helped me figure out how to distill my years of experience, decide on a new direction, and got me going! I'm pretty sure it would have taken me twice as long to get my thoughts cleared if I had done it by myself. My family and I can't thank you enough."
