The Difference: Trusted Professionals Offering Customized Service

"We had to lay-off non-exempt and exempt staff in 3 different cities at the same time. Ginny and her team trained us on how to deliver the notices, and were on site on the day of the lay-offs to let people know about the outplacement programs being offered to them. Having them there helped everyone to realize they weren't just being "let go" but that a team of pros were going to help them each step of the way. Afterwards, managers and staff told me that seeing how we treated their former co-workers really helped them to move forward."
